SIU Women’s Club Scholarship Awards
Luncheon and Spring Business Meeting

The SIU Women’s Club Scholarship Committee—Susan Pearlman, director, Terri Harfst, and Debra Sarvela—will present the 2019 scholarship recipients at our meeting on Friday, April 5, 11 a.m., at the SIU Student Center, Old Main Room.

The luncheon will be catered by Mary’s Restaurant—cost is $16, and parking is available across the street from the Student Center. Registration deadline is March 26—additional information follows in this newsletter.

The generosity of our SIU Women’s Club members through their contributions to the Scholarship Fund allows us to award three scholarships this year—two for $2,500 each and one for $1,000.

Kate Germano is the author of Fight Like A Girl: The Truth Behind How Female Marines Are Trained, co-written by Kelly Kennedy.

She was a United States Marine Corps officer for twenty years, retiring in July 2016. After being relieved from command of the only all-female unit in the entire Department of Defense, she gained national attention for taking a stand against the Marine Corps on issues of systemic gender bias and lowered standards and expectations for female recruits and Marines.

Her writing on national security, gender, and leadership has been published in national media outlets to include the New York Times, Time magazine, U.S. News and World Report, and the Washington Post. She has also been featured on NPR, Vice News Tonight, C-SPAN, and the PBS NewsHour.
